

Broken Group Islands:

Over 100 islands make up this isolated archipelago in Pacific Rim National Park. On our day trip we wind our way through narrow channels observing abundant wildlife in a maze of reefs and idyllic coves. These mystical islands seem to float on the sheltered waters of Barkley Sound.

Listed #3 on Trip Advisor's 2012 list of 10 Great Wildlife Tours in the World

"This is by far the best wildlife viewing cruise I have ever been on in any country..."

ARCHIPELAGO CRUISES

A Cruise of a Different Nature

The Broken Group Islands — the jewel on our doorstep

“An extraordinary event! Did not imagine I would see all this in one day. This may be the most amazing adventure I have ever been on. Definitely the highlight of our visit.”

... Phil & Sarah (Perth, Australia.)

Evening Wildlife Cruise

A cruise down peaceful Ucluelet Inlet and the reefs beyond in search whales and wildlife. Our route will vary dependent on weather and wildlife activity but may include a corner of the Broken Group Islands. Frequent sightings include whales, bears, sea lions, seals, otters, eagles and seabird species.

5:00 pm departure (3 hours): Ask about tour dates

Private Charters
